Call for Photo Competition

As part of the 17th ISBR Symposium, we will be running a photo competition so you can help us find images that reflect the beauty, scientific excellence and diversity of the work done. The theme of the competition is:

Bio-innovation in action.

Photos should have been taken after January 2024.

We invite all ISBR members and Symposium attendees to submit photographs for the contest. Entries will be displayed on the ISBR website and members can vote for their favourite picture, the ISBR board will take the final decision. Prizes will be given to the three best photographs.

- 1st prize: $100 in amazon vouchers
- 2nd prize: $60 in amazon vouchers
- 3rd prize: $40 in amazon vouchers
